

Not so long ago, in a land not so far away...

There was a time when everything had to be done by hand, and everything was work.

But as we began to discover new things, one thing intrigued us more than anything else, and a new age was born:

The age of
computer science!

Ladies and Gentlemen,

I would like to tell you of a day of computer science education, this December 8, 2006. This date marks the anniversary of December 8, 1968 when NLS was first demonstrated. This was the first public system in which hypertext and a computer mouse were used.

Here are some ideas how to celebrate...
