

Purdue University

Founded in 1869 as Indiana's land-grant university, Purdue University is a public, doctoral-granting research university with nearly 39,000 students on its West Lafayette (main) campus, and serves over 68,000 students system-wide. Purdue is one of the nation's leading research institutions with a reputation for excellence and affordable education.

Recently ranked 22nd in the nation in the latest USNews & World Report top 50 public universities survey, the University offers more than 7,400 courses in over 500 fields of study. Ranked 59th in the world, 22nd among U.S. universities, and ninth among American public universities in a survey by The Times of London, Purdue students hail from all 50 states and 126 countries. Purdue enjoys the distinction of having more international students than any public university in the United States.

Purdue's research and learning environment is an incubator of great ideas and stellar accomplishments; where faculty and students discover together, push the boundaries of knowledge, and make significant contributions to virtually every aspect of contemporary life. Extensive library, computing, and laboratory resources support a robust research and learning setting providing multiple opportunities to explore interests and develop skills. More than 325,000 living alumni are graduates of one of the University's highly regarded 10 colleges and schools — Science, Engineering, Management, Pharmacy, Nursing, Consumer and Family Sciences, Liberal Arts, Agriculture, Veterinary Medicine, and Technology — and are making a difference each day in a myriad of fields.
