Scholarship Process

- * Students complete an application describing their academic progress, extracurricular involvement and career aspirations. A committee of undergraduate faculty and staff determine awards.
- * Students receive the award as a credit toward tuition and fees at the University. Scholarship checks must be received by the CS Department and then will be processed through Purdue's Office of Financial Aid.

 Domestic students include U.S. citizens, U.S. nationals, permanent resident aliens, and aliens lawfully present in and able to establish domicile in the U.S. per federal immigration laws. International students who are holders of F, J and some other visa types are not eligible.
