Ride a Moonlight Beam

For Voice, Strings, French Horn, and Percussion

(Scale: C# Malkauns)

Text and music: Aditya P. Mathur

(1948-)

© Aditya P. Mathur
June 14, 1999
I am sitting by my window in the middle of the night.
I am sitting by my window in the middle of the night watching the moon rise from far be low.
ho ping you will come down and hold me tight hold me tight

Aa Aa Aa hold me tight tight tight tight tight in the moon light hold me

© Aditya P. Mathur June 14, 1999 in the moon light in the moon light in the moon light

Moon
de ar moon

Oh moon

lov ly moon

Please let my love ride your bright light

© Aditya P. Mathur

June 14, 1999
Please let my love ride your bright light beam bring him from the sky to dry my eyes on your light beam bright light beam de ar moon please grant me my one last boon de ar moon O de ar moon O de ar moon O de ar moon bring back my love bring back my love come down my love I do need you ride the moon beam I do need you come through the window I do need you come please come be fore the sun

© Aditya P. Mathur
June 14, 1999
wash es the moon beams

moon beams

Aa a a a Aa a a a a

Aa Aa Aa

Aa a a a a a

© Aditya P. Mathur

June 14, 1999
save me please bring my love to me on a moon beam one bright moon beam I am sitting by my window in the middle of the night watching the moon rise from far below. Hoping you will come down and hold me tight.
“Hold me tight, hold me tight, hold me tight.”

“It’s alright, come back my love, ride the beam.”

“Mo on beam.”

© Aditya P. Mathur
June 14, 1999