You are the sun, I am your light,
I am your light forever you are my heart’s delight.

You are my dove, you are the cloud and I am your snow,
You are my poem.
I am a wondering verse.

I am your child, You are the earth together we form the universe.

The sky is bright and the sun is shining,
The grass is green and the rose is blooming.

The red robin sitting on the maple tree is listening to the song.
