Figure 13.4 Available data wrapped around a circular TCP output buffer. Variable sbcount tells the number of available bytes and end gives the location of the last byte of data. End can be computed as (sbstart+sbcount) mod sbsize.