

Figure 19.5 Eight possible states of a neighboring gateway as determined by OSPF's Hello protocol. The example software uses the integer values shown to impose a linear ordering among the states, as required by the standard.