

Figure 21.4 The ASN.1 encoding of object lengths. The short form in (a) is used to represent lengths less than 128, while the long-form in (b) is used to represent longer lengths. The high-order bit of the first byte distinguishes the two forms.